Deforming American Political Thought Challenging The Jeffersonian Legacy:

Deforming American Political Thought Michael J. Shapiro, 2016-02-19 Deforming American Political Thought offers an alternative to the dominant American historical imagination treating issues that range from the nature of Thomas Jefferson's vision of an egalitarian nation to the persistence of racial inequality. Presenting multifaceted arguments that transcend the myopic scope of traditional political discourses, Michael J. Shapiro summons disparate disciplines and genres—architecture, crime stories, novels, films, and jazz/blues music, among others—to provide approaches to the comprehension of diverse facets of American political thought from the founding to the present. The book's various investigations disclose that there have always been dissenting voices articulated in diverse genres of expression that cast doubt on the moral purpose and exceptionalism of the American mind. This highly anticipated updated second edition features a preface focusing on aesthetic theory and the contributions of artistic genres for political analysis and a completely new chapter on critical thinking about the US western and urban encounters afforded by the two HBO series Deadwood and The Wire respectively.

The Counterrevolutionary Shadow Michael Gorup, 2025-11-12 All power to the people. So goes the familiar slogan of 1960s racial justice politics. The message is clear: the fight against racism is a fight for greater democracy for the rule of the people. And yet across American history, movements of racial backlash have also framed themselves as aiming to deliver greater democracy and redeem the rule of the people. Examples abound, ranging from the Southern Redeemers who overthrew Reconstruction to the populist backlash to the civil rights movement and the white revanchism of our own time. How is it that we find claims to greater democracy on both sides of these struggles? What does this reveal about modern democracy, popular sovereignty, and the peculiar politics of race in America?

The Counterrevolutionary Shadow: Race, Democracy, and the Making of the American People provides a novel account of the relationship between race and democratic politics in the United States. Across five chapters, Michael Gorup turns to the life and work of key figures in the history of American political thought, including Thomas Jefferson, Hosea Easton, David Walker, Ida B. Wells, W. E. B. Du Bois, and Huey P. Newton, to argue that racial politics in the United States has always been a politics of peoplehood. Racism is what Gorup calls a politics of popular enclosure: it limits the scope of democratic power by circumscribing who is said to belong to the people. In so doing, it contains democratization from within. Neither strictly antidemocratic nor a necessary entailment of modern democracy as such, Gorup argues that racism is best understood as a political construct developed to manage, if never fully reconcile, the contradictions that beset settler democracy. Racism is, in short, American democracy's counterrevolutionary shadow: a technology for rendering despotic practices like enslavement, exploitation, and dispossession tolerable within a society where the people are said to rule.

Global Politics Jenny Edkins, Maja Zehfuss, Thomas Gregory, 2025-01-31 Global Politics: A New Introduction engages directly with questions that those coming to the study of world politics bring with them. From that innovative starting point, it explores key issues through a critical and inquiring perspective, presenting theoretical ideas and concepts in conjunction with a global range of historical and contemporary case studies Revised and updated throughout the fourth edition offers examples engaging with the latest developments in global politics the climate crisis and anthropocentrism Indigenous experiences and thinking racism and the rise of xenophobia artificial intelligence citizen journalism global health and pandemic response and drone warfare Global Politics examines most significant issues in global politics poverty development colonialism human rights gender inequality race war peacebuilding security violence nationalism authority and what we can do to change the world offers chapters written to a common structure ideal for teaching and learning and features a key question an illustrative example general responses and broader issues integrates theory and practice throughout the text drawing on international relations political theory postcolonial studies sociology geography peace studies and development This exciting up to date and ground breaking textbook is essential reading for all those concerned about global politics

Writing Politics Michael J Shapiro, 2021-07-01 Writing Politics is a methods book designed to instruct on politically focused literary inquiry Exploring the political sensibilities that arise from the way literary fiction re textualizes historical periods and events the book features a series of violence themed inquiries that emphasize forms of writing as the vehicles for politically attuned historiography Each investigation treats the way the literary genre within historiographic metafiction enables political inquiry It is a form of writing that inter articulates history and fiction to rework a textual past and unsettle dominant understandings of events and situations Central to the diverse chapters are fictional treatments of authoritarian fascist or zealous mentalities Featured for example are Radovan Karadzic the architect of the Bosnian genocide Reinhard Heydrich the architect of the Holocaust's final solution and the Trotsky assassin Ramon Mercader Michael J Shapiro has produced another original and sophisticated bookshelf staple the only contemporary investigation in Political Studies that instructs on method in this way

The Political Sublime Michael J. Shapiro, 2018-03-15 In The Political Sublime Michael J Shapiro formulates an original politics of aesthetics through an analysis of the experience of the sublime Turning away from Kant's analysis of the sublime experience as a validation of the existence of a universal common sense Shapiro draws on Deleuze Lyotard and Rancière to show how incomprehensible events and dilemmas provide openings for new political formations He approaches the sublime through a range of artistic and cultural texts that address social crises and natural disasters from the writing of James Baldwin and Ta Nehisi Coates to the films of Ingmar Bergman and Spike Lee these works suggest ways to channel the disruptive effects of the sublime into resistance to authority and innovative political initiative Whether stemming from the threat of nuclear annihilation or the aftermath of an earthquake the violence of racism and terrorism or the devastation of industrialism sublime experience Shapiro contends allows for a rethinking of events in ways that reveal redistribute and create conditions of possibility for alternative communities of sense

Neoliberal Citizenship Luca Mavelli, 2022-02-15 With cosmopolitan illusions put to rest Europe is now haunted by a pervasive neoliberal transformation of citizenship that subordinates inclusion protection and belonging to rationalities of value Against the backdrop of four major crises Eurozone refugee Brexit and the COVID 19 pandemic this book explores how neoliberal citizenship rewrites identities and solidarities in economic terms The result is a sacralized market order in which those superfluous to economic needs and regarded as unproductive consumers of resources be they undocumented migrants debased citizens of austerity or the elderly in care homes are excluded and sacrificed for the well being of the economy Pushing biopolitical theorizing in novel directions through an investigation of the political economy of scarcity and the theology of the market Neoliberal Citizenship reveals how a common thread connects the suspension of search and rescue missions in the Mediterranean the punitive bailout of Greece the widespread adoption of austerity measures the normalization of racism the celebration of resilience and the fact that in Europe and North America during the first wave of the pandemic almost half of all COVID 19 deaths were care home residents This thread is the sacralization of the market that by making life conditional upon its economic and emotional value turns less valuable individuals into sacrificial subjects Neoliberal Citizenship challenges established understandings of citizenship brings to light new regimes of inclusion and exclusion and advances critical insights on the future of neoliberalism in a post COVID 19 world Unveiling Structures in Colson Whitehead's Fiction Paula Martín-Salván, 2025-10-03 This book offers a comprehensive critical analysis of Colson Whitehead's fiction positioning him as a key figure in both African American literature and the global turn to genre It explores how Whitehead employs conventions from popular genres such as detective zombie and caper stories not merely for entertainment but as tools for ideological critique and narrative innovation Central to the study is the concept of narratives of unveiling in which information is revealed retrospectively disrupting linear storytelling and reshaping ethical perspectives These structures allow Whitehead to expose the systemic roots of racism and ideological conflict embedded in American society The book situates his work within broader debates about canon formation Afropessimist and postsoul aesthetics and the politics of form Through close readings of Whitehead's novels it demonstrates how Whitehead challenges racial myths and signifies genre expectations offering narratives that performatively enact cultural critique Aesthetics of Equality Michael J. Shapiro, 2023 Presuming that the problem of political equality as it bears on both persons and assemblages is about being accorded access to the material and symbolic resources needed to manage an effective civic presence Michael J. Shapiro's critical interventions engage the way aesthetic genres illustrate this problem Addressing literary cinematic photographic musical art historical and architectural compositions Shapiro's inquiries encounter the way a wide variety of texts elevate voices bodies and life dramas that have existed below thresholds of recognition In Aesthetics of Equality Shapiro offers a guide to aesthetic methods that emphasize the way writing strategies engage diverse artistic genres to articulate political problems Emphasizing relationships between compositional form and ideational commitment while focusing on the texts' protagonists' aesthetic subjects the analyses cover a wide variety of spaces and historical moments in scenes ranging from ancient Israel and Egypt in the Old Testament's Genesis to the ethno histories of California and Texas
