women directors and groundbreaking pioneers and provides a one stop guide to the leading film directors of the 21st century and the people who inspired them From the blockbusters of the Hollywood studios to emerging voices from Saudi Arabia Pakistan and Laos we learn of women making films in traditionally male dominated areas such as action fantasy and horror There are contributions from countries with film industries in every state from nascent to mature and this book demonstrates how economic and technological change is creating new opportunities for women film directors everywhere BEST BOOK ON WOMEN DIRECTORS DUE TO ITS GLOBAL OVERVIEW Diane Amazon Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson have crafted a watershed work CELLULOID CEILING is essential reading for anyone who wants to know how women directors are helping reshape filmmaking D A Morris Amazon This book is an essential resource for anyone tracking the inspiring work being done by women film directors from around the world UCF Film The level of public consciousness about the barriers faced by female filmmakers is higher than it has ever been Despite this the discussion more often than not centres around North America and to a lesser extent Europe Australia and New Zealand and I am guilty as charged This is perfectly understandable but clearly women do make films outside of these countries and it can be illuminating to consider how their experiences reflect or differ from those with which we are more familiar To this end the arrival of a new book The Celluloid Ceiling could not be more timely Edited by Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson it takes a purposefully global overview of the status quo and in doing so provides some fascinating stories and insights reminding us of what is lost when we limit the discussion to Anglophone directors Matthew Hammett Knott indiewire Rising Sun, Divided Land Kate Taylor-Jones,2013-07-16 Rising Sun and Divided Land provides a comprehensive scholarly examination of the historical background films and careers of selected Korean and Japanese film directors It examines eight directors Fukasaku Kinji Im Kwon teak Kawase Naomi Miike Takashi Lee Chang dong Kitano Takeshi Park Chan wook and Kim Ki duk and considers their work as reflections of personal visions and as films that engage with globalization colonialism nationalism race gender history and the contemporary state of Japan and South Korea Each chapter is followed by a short analysis of a selected film and the volume as a whole includes a cinematic overview of Japan and South Korea and a list of suggestions for further reading and viewing Queer Cinema Barbara Mennel,2012-10-23 Queer Cinema Schoolgirls Vampires and Gay Cowboys illustrates queer cinematic aesthetics by highlighting key films that emerged at historical turning points throughout the twentieth century Barbara Mennel traces the representation of gays and lesbians from the sexual liberation movements of the roaring 1920s in Berlin to the Stonewall Rebellion in New York City and the emergence of queer activism and film in the early 1990s She explains early tropes of queerness such as the boarding school or the vampire and describes the development of camp from 1950s Hollywood to underground art of the late 1960s in New York City Mennel concludes with an exploration of the contemporary mainstreaming of gay and lesbian films and global queer cinema Queer Cinema Schoolgirls Vampires and Gay Cowboys not only offers an introduction to a gay and lesbian film history but also contributes to an academic discussion about queer subversion of mainstream film Cinematic Interfaces Seung-hoon Jeong, 2013-07-11 In this book Seung hoon Jeong introduces the cinematic interface as a contact surface that mediates between image and subject proposing that this mediation be understood not simply as transparent and efficient but rather as asymmetrical ambivalent immanent and multidirectional Jeong enlists the new media term interface to bring to film theory a synthetic notion of interfaciality as underlying the multifaceted nature of both the image and subjectivity Drawing on a range of films Jeong examines cinematic interfaces seen on screen and the spectator s experience of them including the direct appearance of a camera filmstrip screen the character s bodily contact with such a medium interface the object s surface and the subject s face as quasi interface and the image itself Each of these case studies serves as a platform for remapping and revamping major concepts in film studies such as suture embodiment illusion signification and indexicality Looking to such theories as the ontology of the image and the phenomenology of the body this original theorization of the cinematic interface not only offers a conceptual framework for rethinking and re linking film and media studies but also suggests a general theory of the interface
