Defending The Lion City:

Defending the Lion City Tim Huxley, 2000 The most comprehensive and up to date account of the military capabilities of Singapore a stable and prosperous city state in a potentially unpredictable region Defending the Lion City Tim Huxley, 2000-12 Surrounded by larger and more populous nations in the heart of the Muslim Malay world Singapore has been acutely aware of its vulnerability since separating from the Malaysian federation in 1965 Singapore's government has met its defense needs with characteristic determination building powerful well equipped and highly trained armed forces based on a relatively small professional core and much larger numbers of conscript and reservist citizen soldiers Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr, Zlatko Skrbis, 2008 Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore's state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong's Singapore today

Order and Security in Southeast Asia Michael Leifer, 2006 Michael Leifer who died in 2001 was one of the leading scholars of Southeast Asian international relations This is an academic and personal volume devoted to Leifer's vast contributions to the discipline of international relations Goh Keng Swee: A Legacy Of Public Service Emrys Myles Khean Aun Chew, Chong Guan Kwa, 2012-04-19 Dr Goh Keng Swee's extensive career as a public servant was dynamic as well as distinguished in many ways decisively instrumental in the making of the Republic of Singapore This distinctive collection of essays attempts an assessment of the long term influence and significance of Dr Goh's major contributions Envisaged as a companion volume to Goh Keng Swee A Public Career Remembered this volume brings together an exceptional team of Singaporean scholars whose interdisciplinary expertise and cross generational perspectives offer a balanced analysis and nuanced appraisal of Dr Goh's lifetime of public service The book's contributors argue that Dr Goh's past endeavours bequeathed an enduring legacy meriting fresh examination and careful evaluation in order to appreciate the heroic scale of such achievement Particularly instructive are the examples of Dr Goh's thinking patriotism fiscal prudence strategic pragmatism and creative imagination at work technocracy at its finest which could be of immediate practical benefit to a wider nation of technocrats Further illumination comes from the insights of those contributors who had worked with the former Deputy Prime Minister and knew him personally For a half century that witnessed key turning points and phases of development in Singapore's transformation from colonial port city to independent global city Dr Goh played a leading role in the crafting and conduct of public policy as with the creation of public institutions which made the difference between survival and success The organization of this volume reflects both a thematic approach and a chronological arrangement of material the focus and the order of chapters corresponding to the historical sequence of public offices that Dr Goh held social welfare political and constitutional evolution development economics and finance the armed forces and defence industry the education system from schools through higher education to the research institutes Chinese studies from Confucianism to China watching and cultural development with special emphasis on the creation of the Singapore Symphony Orchestra Goh Keng Swee A Legacy of Public Service will be read by present and future generations of public servants by Singaporeans in general and by all students and laypersons with an interest in the modern history of Singapore social economic political military and cultural to which a characteristically simple and frugal Dr Goh contributed both decisively and unreservedly

Goh Keng Swee Emrys Chew, Chong Guan Kwa, 2012 Goh's thinking patriotism fiscal prudence strategic pragmatism and creative imagination at work technocracy at its finest which could be of immediate practical benefit to a wider nation of technocrats Further illumination comes from the insights of those contributors who had worked with the former Deputy Prime Minister and knew him personally For a half century that witnessed key turning points and phases of development in Singapore's transformation from colonial port city to independent global city Dr Goh played a leading role in the crafting and conduct of public policy as with the creation of public institutions which made the difference between survival and success The organization of this volume reflects both a thematic approach and a chronological arrangement of material the focus and the order of chapters corresponding to the historical sequence of public offices that Dr The Ruling Elite of Singapore Michael D. Barr, 2014-01-17 Michael Barr explores the complex and covert networks of power at work in one of the world's most prosperous countries the city state of Singapore He argues that the contemporary networks of power are a deliberate project initiated and managed by Lee Kuan Yew former prime minister and Singapore's founding father designed to empower himself and his family Barr identifies the crucial institutions of power including the country's sovereign wealth funds and the government linked companies together with five critical features that form the key to understanding the nature of the networks He provides an assessment of possible shifts of power within the elite in the wake of Lee Kuan Yew's son Lee Hsien Loong assuming power and considers the possibility of a more fundamental democratic shift in Singapore's political system

National Service In Singapore Shu Huang Ho, Graham Gerard Ong-webb, 2018-11-29 National Service NS is one of Singapore's foundational public policies First implemented by the British in 1954 amended in 1967 to provide a means to defend a fledgling independent nation and codified into its present form in 1970 NS is a key pillar of Singapore's defence Its significance however goes beyond defence With over 1 million male Singapore citizens and permanent residents having served NS and consequently involving many more family members friends employers and colleagues in different ways NS is deeply woven into Singapore's political and social fabric This volume brings together a range of scholarly perspectives on NS which explore its past present and future in four sections The history of NS NS in practice debates on NS and an international perspective Comprising chapters by individuals from varied backgrounds National Service in Singapore offers a broad account of one of Singapore's oldest public policies Management of Success Terence Chong, 2010 Rev ed of Management of success the moulding of modern Singapore Immigration in Singapore Vasu, Wen Ling Chan, Su Yin Yeap, 2025-10-01 This study traces the socio political effects of immigration on Singapore and its population a topic that has been the subject of intense debate in the nation as its population grows increasingly diverse Beyond the logic of economic imperatives the book aims to explore the larger consequences of taking in large number of immigrants and its analysis should appeal to scholars of migration social change and public policy
