Deleuze And Contemporary Art Deleuze Connections Eup:

Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-28 An innovative study of the thought and writings of Jean Francois Lyotard in relation to contemporary art and in particular performance art Mutating Ecologies in Contemporary Art Christian Alonso, 2019-01-08 What role might art exert in light of the challenges posed by climate change resource depletion and the diverse political and cultural crises our societies face in the twenty first century The hypothesis guiding this book is born of Felix Guattari's claim that in confronting the multi faceted problems of our global political economy we need to develop a more complex analysis of nature culture and technology shifting from catastrophic end of the world narratives to productive generative trans species alliances for the sake of the sustainability of life on the planet Because capitalism is no longer understood merely as a mode of production but as a system of semiotization homogenization and of transmission of forms of power over goods labour and individuals only the emergence of other relational subjective formations would be able to counteract the fixation of desire towards capital and its diverse crystallizations of power New social practices new aesthetic practices and new practices of the self in relation to the other are summoned to undertake an ethical political reinvention of life As Guattari argues it is about reappropriating universes of value and paving the way for the emergence of processes of singularization involving a mutating subjectivity a mutating socius and a mutating environment This book is engaged in thinking about the conjunction of the ecological turn in contemporary art and the attention given to matter in recent humanist scholarship as a way of exploring how new configurations of the world suggest new ways of being and acting in that world Contributors investigate the means by which art can act as an existential catalysist providing ways of changing our modes of relation beyond traditional modes of representation and in doing so instituting transformation Art and Language: Explorations in (Post) Modern Thought and Visual Culture Christiane Treichl, 2017-12-19 Art and Language Explorations in Post Modern Thought and Visual Culture sheds new light on the symbiotic relationship between art and language by exploring how these cultured sets consociate on philosophical and art historical levels Against the backdrop of visual semiotics the first section of the book considers the differences between art and language from various vantage points meaning making asking if art is a language Ernst Cassirer's symbolic forms Jan Muka ovsk's signs and Gilles Deleuze's philosophy The second section of the book deals with the works of post modern artists from diverse cultural backgrounds who unfasten traditional linguistic and artistic systems by destabilising the viewer and blurring the boundaries between art and language The author argues that this is the most productive cutting edge aspect of the word image relationship of that period Language provides post modern art with its thrust and focus and offers a site for critical intervention The artistic forays the author embarks on cover a wide range touching on Surrealism Dada Arabic Calligraphy and Chinese Conceptualist Art Contemporary Art About Architecture Nora Wendl, 2017-07-05 An important resource for scholars of contemporary art and architecture this volume considers contemporary art that takes architecture as its subject Concentrated on works made since 1990 Contemporary Art About Architecture A Strange Utility is the first to take up this topic in a sustained and explicit manner and the first to advance the idea that contemporary art functions as a form of architectural history theory and analysis Over the course of fourteen essays by both emerging and established scholars this volume examines a diverse group of artists in conjunction with the vernacular canonical and fantastical structures engaged by their work I Manglano Ovalle Matthew Barney Monika Sosnowska Pipo Nguyen duy and Paul Pfeiffer are among those considered as are the compelling questions of architecture s relationship to photography the evolving legacy of Mies van der Rohe the notion of an architectural unconscious and the provocative concepts of the unbuilt and the unbuildable Through a rigorous investigation of these issues Contemporary Art About Architecture calls attention to the fact that art is now a vital form of architectural discourse Indeed this phenomenon is both pervasive and in its individual incarnations compelling a reason to think again about the entangled histories of architecture and art

Deleuze and Contemporary Art Stephen Zepke, 2010-05-27 What is the importance of deconstruction and the writing of Jacques Derrida in particular for literary criticism today Derek Attridge argues that the challenge of Derrida s work for our understanding of literature and its value has still not been fully met and in this book which traces a close engagement with Derrida s writing over two decades and reflects an interest in that work going back a further two decades shows how that work can illuminate a variety of topics Chapters include an overview of deconstruction as a critical practice today discussions of the secret postcolonialism ethics literary criticism jargon fiction and photography and responses to the theoretical writing of Emmanuel Levinas Roland Barthes and J Hillis Miller Also included is a discussion of the recent reading of Derrida s philosophy as radical atheism and the book ends with a conversation on deconstruction and place with the theorist and critic Jean Michel Rabate Running throughout is a concern with the question of responsibility as exemplified in Derrida s own readings of literary and philosophical texts responsibility to the work being read responsibility to the protocols of rational argument and responsibility to the reader

Arts-Research-Education

Linda Knight, Alexandra Lasczik Cutcher, 2017-12-01 Drawing from an international authorship and having global appeal this book scrutinizes suggests and aggravates the relationships boundaries and connections between arts research and education in various contexts Building upon existing publications in the field of arts based educational research it deliberately connects and disconnects the terms in order to expose and broaden the scope of this field thereby encouraging fresh perspectives This book portrays both contemporary theoretical prospects as well as contemporary examples of practice It also presents work of emerging scholars thereby growing the field The book includes academic text based chapters as well as poetry narrative fiction visual essays and combinations of text image sound video that demonstrate performance of music theatre exhibition and dance This book provides and provokes critical dialogue about the forms representations dissemination and intersections of the arts research and education This is a focused collection and resource for scholars and students with an international authorship perspective and audience

Arts-Based Research Jan Jagodzinski, Jason Wallin, 2013-04-19 A provocative book

an important book jagodzinski s and Wallin s betrayal is in fact a wake up call for art based research a loving critique of its directions jagodzinski s and Wallin s reference is the question what art can do not what it means Theirs is an ultimate affirmation that uncovers the singularities that compose and give consistency to art not as an object but as an event Their betrayal consists in an affirmation of life and becoming positing a performative machinics of the arts which is in absolute contraposition with the hegemonic discourse of art and as an object of knowledge and representation This does not only concern academia but also politics and ethics an untimely book that comes just at the right time Bernd Herzogenrath Goethe Universit t Frankfurt am Main Germany author of An American Body Politic A Deleuzian Approach and editor of Deleuze Pedagogies Against the State Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art Simonetta Moro,2021-07-29

Mapping Paradigms in Modern and Contemporary Art defines a new cartographic aesthetic or what Simonetta Moro calls carto aesthetics as a key to interpreting specific phenomena in modern and contemporary art through the concept of poetic cartography The problem of mapping although indebted to the spatial turn of poststructuralist philosophy is reconstructed as hermeneutics while exposing the nexus between topology space time and memory The book posits that the emergence of mapping as a ubiquitous theme in contemporary art can be attributed to the power of the cartographic model to constitute multiple worldviews that can be seen as paradigmatic of the post modern and contemporary condition This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art history art theory aesthetics and cartography Gilles Deleuze's ABCs Charles J. Stivale,2008-02-04

Friendship in its nature purpose and effects has been an important concern of philosophy since antiquity It was of particular significance in the life of Gilles Deleuze one of the most original and influential philosophers of the late twentieth century Taking L Ab c daire de Gilles Deleuze an eight hour video interview that was intended to be aired only after Deleuze s death as a key source Charles J Stivale examines the role of friendship as it appears in Deleuze s work and life Stivale develops a zigzag methodology practiced by Deleuze himself to explore several concepts as they relate to friendship and to discern how friendship shifts slips and creates movement between Deleuze and specific friends The first section of this study discusses the elements of creativity pedagogy and literature that appear implicitly and explicitly in his work The second section focuses on Deleuze s friendships with Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Claire Parnet and Félix Guattari and reveals his conception of friendship as an ultimately impersonal form of intensity that goes beyond personal relationships Stivale s analysis offers an intimate view into the thought of one of the greatest thinkers of our time A Companion to Art Theory Paul Smith,Carolyn Wilde,2008-04-15

The Companion provides an accessible critical survey of Western visual art theory from sources in Classical Medieval and Renaissance thought through to contemporary writings
