Canvases And Careers Institutional Change In The French Painting World:

Canvases and Careers Harrison C. White, Cynthia A. White, 1965 In the nineteenth century the Académie des Beaux Arts and institution of central importance to the artistic life of France for over two hundred years yielded much of its power to the present system of art distribution which is dependent upon critics, dealers and small exhibitions. In Canvases and Careers Harrison and Cynthia White examine in scrupulous and fascinating detail how and why this shift occurred. Assimilating a wide range of historical and sociological data, the authors argue convincingly that the Academy, by neglecting to address the social and economic conditions of its time, undermined its own ability to maintain authority and control. Originally published in 1965, this ground-breaking work is a classic piece of empirical research in the sociology of art. In this edition, Harrison C. White's new Foreword compares the marketing approaches of two contemporary painters, while Cynthia A. White's new Afterword reviews recent scholarship in the field.

Memory and Desire Kenneth McConkey, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2002. Memory and Desire is a lavishly illustrated account of the art world in Britain at the turn of the twentieth century. It calls upon rich resources of contemporary diaries, letters and art criticism, as well as the analysis of works of art, to answer questions about how and why new artistic tendencies emerged and tastes changed. Eschewing the familiar narrative of an inevitable progress towards modernism, Kenneth McConkey considers a broad range of art and critical thinking in the period. Discussing the market for old master paintings which rivalled those for modern art, and the question of how and why certain genres of art were particularly successful at the time, McConkey explores the detail and significance of contemporary taste. He draws upon the work of commercially successful painters such as John Singer Sargent, William Orpen, George Clausen, Alfred East, John Lavery and Philip Wilson Steer, and their critic supporters, to throw light upon current arguments about training, aesthetics, visual memory and the creation of new art. Memory and Desire is a major contribution to our knowledge of this important period in British art.

Visual Culture John A. Walker, Sarah Chaplin, 1997-12-15 This book is about the expanding realm of visual culture in architecture, art, design, advertising, photography, film, television, video, theatre, performance, computer imagery and virtual reality. It is also about Visual Culture Studies, a relatively new academic discipline or rather range of disciplines that scholars employ to analyse visual artefacts. Unlike many other texts on the same subject, it foregrounds the visual and is systematic and accessible. Visual culture provides an overview of the subject that pays heed to the achievements of both traditional and new theory, whilst directing the reader to a large body of literature via references and an extensive bibliography. Walker and Chaplin discuss the concepts of the visual and of culture, as well as the field and origins of Visual Culture Studies, coping with theory, models of production and consumption, institutions, pleasure, the canon and concepts of value, visual literacy and poetics, modes of analysis, culture and commerce, and new technologies. This book is designed for those studying the history and theory of fine arts, design and the mass media.

Romanticism The Portrait of Dr. Gachet Cynthia Saltzman,1999-04-01 At a star studded auction in 1990 a painting was sold for the record breaking price of 82.5 million That painting Vincent van Gogh's Portrait of Dr Gachet has seemed to countless admirers to portray our times as something bright in spite of its inevitable griefs This fascinating book reconstructs the painting's journey and becomes a rich story of modernist art and the forces behind the art market Masterfully evoked are the lives of the thirteen extraordinary people who owned the painting and shaped its history avant garde European collectors pioneering dealers in Paris and Berlin a brilliant medievalist who acquired it for one of Germany's great museums and a member of the Nazi elite who sold it after it had been confiscated as a work of degenerate art Remarkable and riveting The Portrait of Dr Gachet illuminates in dramatic detail the dynamics of the art market and of culture in our time Nell Walden, Der Sturm, and the Collaborative Cultures of Modern Art Jessica Sjöholm Skrubbe,2021-12-30 Based on hitherto overlooked archival material this book reveals Nell Walden's significant impact on the Sturm organisation through a feminist reading of supportive labour that highlights the centrality of collaborative work within the modern art world This book introduces Walden as an ardent collector of modern and indigenous art and critically contextualises her own art production in relation to expressionist concepts of art and to gendered ideas on abstraction and decoration Visual analyses highlight how she collaborated with professional and experimental women photographers during the Weimar era and how the circulation of these photographs served as a means to intervene in the public sphere of culture in interwar Germany Finally the book provides an analysis of Walden's continuing work for Der Sturm after her voluntary exile from Germany to Switzerland in 1933 and highlights the importance of women's supportive labour for the canonisation and institutionalisation of modern art in museums and archives The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies and gender studies

Artistic Relations Peter Collier,Robert Lethbridge,Professor of French Language and Literature Robert Lethbridge,1994-01-01 In this innovative volume literary critics and art historians explore the relationship between literature and the visual arts in 19th century France Eighteen leading scholars including Pierre Bourdieu Germaine Greer Segolene Le Men Roger Cardinal and Mary Ann Caws analyse contemporary forms of representation to reveal the rich variety of factors that link image and text Fellow Men Bridget Alsdorf,2022-07-12 Focusing on the art of Henri Fantin Latour 1836 1904 and his colleagues Gustave Courbet Edgar Degas Edouard Manet Fr d ric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir Fellow Men argues for the importance of the group as a defining subject of nineteenth century French painting Through close readings of some of the most ambitious paintings of the realist and impressionist generation Bridget Alsdorf offers new insights into how

French painters understood the shifting boundaries of their social world and reveals the fragile masculine bonds that made up the avant garde A dedicated realist who veered between extremes of sociability and hermetic isolation Fantin Latour painted group dynamics over the course of two decades from 1864 to 1885 This was a period of dramatic change in French history and art events like the Paris Commune and the rise and fall of impressionism raised serious doubts about the power of collectivism in art and life Fantin Latour s monumental group portraits and related works by his friends and colleagues from the 1850s through the 1880s represent varied visions of collective identity and test the limits of association as both a social and an artistic pursuit By examining the bonds and frictions that animated their social circles Fantin Latour and his cohorts developed a new pictorial language for the modern group one of fragmentation exclusion and willful withdrawal into interior space that nonetheless presented individuality as radically relational

Manet Pierre Bourdieu,2018-05-18 What is a symbolic revolution What happens when a symbolic revolutions occurs how can it succeed and prevail and why is it so difficult to understand Using the exemplary case of douard Manet Pierre Bourdieu began to ponder these questions as early as the 1980s before making it the focus of his lectures in his last years at the Coll ge de France This second volume of Bourdieu s previously unpublished lectures provides his most sustained contribution to the sociology of art and the analysis of cultural fields It is also a major contribution to our understanding of impressionism and the works of Manet Bourdieu treats the paintings of Manet as so many challenges to the conservative academicism of the pompier painters the populism of the Realists the commercial eclecticism of genre painting and even the Impressionists showing that such a revolution is inseparable from the conditions that allow fields of cultural production to emerge At a time when the Academy was in crisis and when the increase in the number of painters challenged the role of the state in defining artistic value the break that Manet inaugurated revolutionised the aesthetic order The new vision of the world that emerged from this upheaval still shapes our categories of perception and judgement today the very categories that we use everyday to understand the representations of the world and the world itself This major work by one of the greatest sociologists of the last 50 years will be of great interest to students and scholars in sociology art history and the social sciences and humanities generally It will also appeal to a wide readership interested in art in impressionism and in the works of Manet
