Embodying Brazil Sara Delamont, Neil Stephens, Claudio Campos, 2017-01-06 The practice of capoeira the Brazilian dance fight game has grown rapidly in recent years It has become a popular leisure activity in many cultures as well as a career for Brazilians in countries across the world including the US the UK Canada and Australia This original ethnographic study draws on the latest research conducted on capoeira in the UK to understand this global phenomenon It not only presents an in depth investigation of the martial art but also provides a wealth of data on masculinities performativity embodiment globalisation and rites of passage Centred in cultural sociology while drawing on anthropology and the sociology of sport and dance the book explores the experiences of those learning and teaching capoeira at a variety of levels From beginners first encounters with this martial art to the perspectives of more advanced students it also sheds light on how teachers experience their own re-enculturation as they embody the exotic other Embodying Brazil: An Ethnography of Diasporic Capoeira is fascinating reading for all capoeira enthusiasts as well as for anyone interested in the sociology of sport sport and social theory sport race and ethnicity or Latin American Studies

In Search of Legitimacy Lauren Miller Griffith, 2016-01-01 Every year countless young adults from affluent Western nations travel to Brazil to train in capoeira the dance martial art form that is one of the most visible strands of the Afro-Brazilian cultural tradition In Search of Legitimacy explores why first world men and women leave behind their jobs families and friends to pursue a strenuous training regimen in a historically disparaged and marginalized practice Using the concept of apprenticeship pilgrimage studying with a local master at a historical point of origin the author examines how non-Brazilian capoeiristas learn their art and claim legitimacy while navigating the complexities of wealth disparity racial discrimination and cultural appropriation

Ethnologia Europaea vol. 46:1 Laura Stark, 2016-05-30 Special issue Muslim Intimacies In every society individual choice and freedom are shaped at least to some degree by the needs of familial and marital institutions Currently negotiations between individuals and families are undergoing transformations due to late modern processes such as recent waves of mass migration the increasing transnationalism of everyday practices global commerce in ideas and images and the expansion of information technology into all corners of people's lives. Some of the greatest challenges are experienced by Muslim families: the majority of the world's Muslims live in extreme poverty and in Europe anti-Muslim sentiment has found a firm foothold in public attitudes and debates. This special issue explores the dilemmas facing transnational Muslim families as well as those who feel the impact of late modern transformations in societies where they have lived for generations. Five scholarly articles address family dynamics among Muslims in Finland, Anne H. Kinnunen; Ethiopia, Outi Fingerroos; Italy and Sweden, Pia Karlsson Minganti; Morocco, Raquel Gil Carvalheira; and Tanzania, Laura Stark. These are complemented by the insightful commentary by Garbi Schmidt. The aim of this theme issue is to develop new ways of talking about the links between Islam, family and the individual which move away from the ethnocentrism of Western concepts and pay greater attention to the desires and goals of those studied. This volume includes two open issue contributions. Magdalena Elchinova scrutinizes identity construction among Orthodox Bulgarians based in Istanbul and in the context of the post-Fordist creative city. Ove Sutter analyses the playful and performative protests of activists following the declaration of the so-called Danger Zone 2014 in Hamburg, Germany.

Conversations With Landscape Karl Benediktsson, Katrín Anna Lund, 2016-05-13. Conversations With Landscape moves beyond the conventional dualisms associated with landscape, exploring notions of landscape and its relation with humans through the metaphor of conversation. Such an approach conceives of landscape as an actor in the ongoing communication that is inherent in any perception, recognising the often ignored mutuality of encounters between human and non-human actors. With contributions drawn from a variety of disciplines including anthropology, geography, archaeology, philosophy, literature and the visual arts, this book explores the affects and emotions engendered in the conversations between landscape and humans. Offering scope for an original and coherent approach to the study of landscape, this book will appeal to scholars and researchers across a range of social sciences and humanities.

Grassroots Politics and Oil Culture in Venezuela Iselin Åsedotter Strønen, 2017-09-01. This book is published open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. This book presents an ethnographic study of how grassroots activism in Venezuela during the Chávez presidency can be understood in relation to the country's history as a petro-state. Taking the contested relationship between the popular sectors and the Venezuelan state as a point of departure, Iselin Åsedotter Strønen explores how notions such as class, race, state, bureaucracy, popular politics, capitalism, neoliberalism, consumption, oil, wealth and corruption gained salience in the Bolivarian process. A central argument is that the Bolivarian process was an attempt to challenge the practices, ideas and values inherited from Venezuela's historical development as an oil-producing state. Drawing on rich ethnographic material from Caracas shantytowns, state institutions as well as everyday life and public culture, Strønen explores the complexities and challenges in fostering deep social and political change.
