DANCING IN THE DARK Karl Ove Knausgaard, 2015-04-06 The fourth part of a sensational literary cycle that has been hailed as perhaps the most important literary enterprise of our times Rachel Cusk Guardian 18 years old and fresh out of high school Karl Ove Knausgård moves to a tiny fisherman's village far north of the polar circle to work as a school teacher He has no interest in the job itself or in any other job for that matter His intention is to save up enough money to travel while finding the space and time to start his writing career Initially everything looks fine He writes his first few short stories finds himself accepted by the hospitable locals and receives flattering attention from several beautiful local girls But then as the darkness of the long polar nights start to cover the beautiful landscape Karl Ove's life also takes a darker turn The stories he writes tend to repeat themselves his drinking escalates and causes some disturbing blackouts his repeated attempts at losing his virginity end in humiliation and shame and to his own distress he also develops romantic feelings towards one of his 13 year old students Along the way there are flashbacks to his high school years and the roots of his current problems And then there is the shadow of his father whose sharply increasing alcohol consumption serves as an ominous backdrop to Karl Ove's own life style Reading the Contemporary Author Aliso Gibbons, 2023 Political Theology after Metaphysics Derek

Brown, 2023-12-01 In Political Theology after Metaphysics Derek Brown argues that theologians and religious believers should pursue a revolutionary political theology that can address racism sexism and other forms of oppression in practical ways rather than following the sorts of metaphysical theologies that have dominated theological discourse since at least the scholastic period Relying primarily on Marxist and deconstructive critiques of the ideological function of metaphysics the book engages a wide range of classical and contemporary figures including Karl Marx Søren Kierkegaard Carl Schmitt Jacques Derrida James Cone Chantal Mouffe Cornel West Martin Heidegger and Karl Ove Knausgård These engagements are attentive not only to the ways in which these figures critique or defend metaphysics but also to the ways in which they perform political theologies responsive to those critiques While the so called postmodern critique of metaphysics which Brown problematizes as insufficiently critical of political ideology is often read as a challenge to religion Brown's readings suggest that the deconstructive and Marxist critiques of metaphysics present an opportunity for the reemergence of a historical and politically engaged form of religion Writing Shame Kaye Mitchell, 2019-11-01 Through readings of an array of recent texts literary and popular fictional and autofictional realist and experimental this book maps out a contemporary Western shame culture Shame and Modern Writing Barry Sheils, Julie Walsh, 2018-04-09 Shame and Modern Writing seeks to uncover the presence of shame in and across a vast array of modern writing modalities This interdisciplinary volume includes essays from distinguished and emergent scholars in the Humanities and Social Sciences and shorter practice based reflections from poets and clinical writers It serves as a timely reflection of shame as presented in modern writing giving added attention to engagements on race gender and the question of new media representation My Struggle: Book 4
