Changing Race Changing Race:

Changing Race Clara E. Rodríguez, 2000-07 An introduction to the dynamic complexity of American ethnic life and Latino identity Latinos are the fastest growing population group in the United States Through their language and popular music Latinos are making their mark on American culture as never before As the United States becomes Latinized how will Latinos fit into America s divided racial landscape and how will they define their own racial and ethnic identity Through strikingly original historical analysis extensive personal interviews and a careful examination of census data Clara E Rodriguez shows that Latino identity is surprisingly fluid situation dependent and constantly changing She illustrates how the way Latinos are defining themselves and refusing to define themselves represents a powerful challenge to America s system of racial classification and American racism

Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America John W. Frazier, Eugene Tetley-Fio, 2006 Race, Politics and Social Change Les Back, John Solomos, 2002-01-31 Drawing on a wealth of original sources including interviews with politicians and activists this book explores the changing contours of the politics of race in the present social and political environment The volume seeks to go beyond abstract generalisations in order to develop an account which takes seriously the everyday processes that have shaped social understandings of race and politics in British society At the same time it links up to the broader debates about the impact of multiculturalism on contemporary politics the role of minorities in political life and the limits of democratic government Its account of the role of black politicians within the context of party politics will be of particular appeal to those interested in the interplay between mobilisation and the development of racial justice and equality Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America, Third Edition John W. Frazier, Eugene L. Tetley-Fio, Norah F. Henry, 2016-12-29 Uses both historical and contemporary case studies to examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit This book examines major Hispanic African and Asian diasporas in the continental United States and Puerto Rico from the nineteenth century to the present with particular attention on the diverse ways in which these immigrant groups have shaped and reshaped American places and landscapes Through both historical and contemporary case studies the contributors examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit illustrating along the way the behaviors and concepts that comprise the modern ethnic and racial geography of immigrant and minority groups While primarily addressed to students and scholars in the fields of racial and ethnic geography these case studies will be accessible to anyone interested in race place connections race ethnicity boundaries the development of racialization and the complexity of human settlement patterns and landscapes that make up the United States and Puerto Rico Taken together they show how individuals and culture groups through their ideologies social organization and social institutions reflect both local and regional processes of place making and place remaking that occur within and beyond the continental United States

Race in American Film Daniel Bernardi,Michael Green,2017-07-07 This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history

Religion, Politics, and Identity in a Changing

South Africa Abdulkader Tayob, Wolfram Weisse, David Chidester, What is the role of religion in society In the wake of September 11 public intellectuals provided easy answers According to some religion was the problem others commented religion was the solution Generally public debate about the force of religion in society has been organized by either or propositions Religion is a force for either freedom or bondage for either peace or war for either mutual recognition or antagonistic polarization Analysis of religion and social change has also tended to be framed in terms of oppositions that inform research agendas and public policy In this book authors from South Africa the United States of America the Netherlands and Germany test these oppositions

The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America Ronald H. Bayor, 2004-07-14 All historians would agree that America is a nation of nations But what does that mean in terms of the issues that have moved and shaped us as a people Contemporary concerns such as bilingualism incorporation assimilation dual identity ethnic politics quotas and affirmative action residential segregation and the volume of immigration resonate with a past that has confronted variations of these modern issues The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America written and compiled by a highly respected team of American historians under the editorship of Ronald Bayor illuminates the myriad ways in which immigration racial and ethnic histories have shaped the contours of contemporary American society This invaluable resource documents all eras of the American past including black white interactions and the broad spectrum of American attitudes and reactions concerning Native Americans Irish Catholics Mexican Americans Jewish Americans and other groups Each of the eight chronological chapters contains a survey essay an annotated bibliography and 20 to 30 related public and private primary source documents including manifestos speeches court cases letters memoirs and much more From the 1655 petition of Jewish merchants regarding the admission of Jews to the New Netherlands colony to an interview with a Chinese American worker regarding a 1938 strike in San Francisco documents are drawn from a variety of sources and allow students and others direct access to our past Selections include Powhatan to John Smith 1609 Thomas Jefferson Notes on the State of Virginia Petition of the Trustees of Congregation Shearith Israel 1811 Bessie Conway or The Irish Girl in America German Society in Chicago Annual Report 1857 1858 Mark Twain's Salutation to the Century W E B DuBois Of Our Spiritual Strivings NAACP on Black Schoolteachers Fight for Equal Pay Malcolm X speech 1964 Hewy Newton interview and Black Panther Party platform Preamble La Raza Unida Party Lee Iacocca speech to Ethnic Heritage Council of the Pacific Northwest 1984 Native American Graves and Repatriation Act 1990

Hoffman, Mindy K. Shoss, Lauren A. Wegman, 2020-04-23 This handbook provides an overview of the research on the changing nature of work and workers by marshalling interdisciplinary research to summarize the empirical evidence and provide documentation of what has actually changed Connections are explored between the changing nature of work and macro level trends in technological change income inequality global labor markets labor unions organizational forms and skill polarization among others This edited volume also reviews evidence for changes in workers including generational change or lack thereof that has accumulated across domains Based on documented changes in work and worker behavior the handbook derives implications for a range of management functions such as selection performance management leadership workplace ethics and employee well being This evaluation of the extent of changes and their impact gives guidance on what best practices should be put in place to harness these developments to achieve success

A Realist Metaphysics of Race Jeremy Pierce, 2014-12-11 In A Realist Metaphysics of Race A Context Sensitive Short Term Retentionist Long Term Revisionist Approach Jeremy Pierce defends a social kind view of racial categories On this view the biological features we use to classify people racially do not make races natural kinds Rather races exist because of contingent social practices single out certain groups of people as races give them social importance and allow us to name them as races Pierce also identifies several kinds of context sensitivity as central to how racial categorization works and argues that we need racial categories to identify problems in how our racial constructions are formed including the harmful effects of racial constructions Hence rather than seeking to eliminate such categories Pierce argues that we should also make efforts to change the conditions that generate their problematic elements with an eye toward retaining only the unproblematic aspects A Realist Metaphysics of Race contains insights relevant not just to professional philosophers in metaphysics philosophy of race social philosophy philosophy of language and philosophy of science but also to students and scholars working in sociology biology anthropology ethnic studies and political science
