Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples Cynthia Cohen,2023-09-20 Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples approaches this complex subject from two directions first the existing framework of international law both actual and potential as embodied in the relevant provisions of international conventions and the case law of international tribunals and second specific issues that arise between indigenous peoples in the United States Canada Latin America Scandinavia India and Australia and the states which exercise jurisdiction in their homelands This book by a leading authority on children s rights is a major contribution to an area of international law that attracts more attention each year and that many human rights advocates see as a critical testing ground for the genuineness of states humanitarian rhetoric Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Religion and Human Rights Laura E. Alexander,2023-12-19 This book highlights perspectives from religious traditions worldwide in conversation with other communities who promote critique or question the idea of human rights It shows how human rights can provide a platform for dialogue among groups of people from diverse backgrounds who seek to address pressing issues of human well being In each chapter readers will be introduced to religious and human rights perspectives on specific global issues Intersecting with these issues the work examines history and philosophy of human rights for a generally accessible overview of human rights theory foundations and critique Specific case studies woven through the book will also help both students and advocates whether they are part of religious communities or not engage more deeply with particular areas of concern This volume is a useful resource for undergraduate students who are learning about the relationship between religion and human rights in a classroom for the first time as well as upper level and graduate students looking for a broad basis of knowledge and a starting point for digging deeper into specific areas of scholarship
