Dimitri House Stories Fran Morse, 2015-10-08 When you walk down the street and see someone who's homeless that's a life that's a story Fran Morse Author Dimitri House Director 1997 2015 Welcome to Dimitri House Stories twenty one short but unforgettable and ultimately hopeful stories of homeless people in Rochester New York After nearly twenty five years of service Dimitri House Director Fran Morse goes beyond compassionate witness to show us another side to those men and women she served PRAISE FOR DIMITRI HOUSE STORIES These tenderly wrought vignettes make visible those we've trained ourselves not to see residents of our city staggering under the weight of illness addiction and multiple losses not only their troubles but their delights the magic of a thorn apple tree a spray of lilacs set into the hair the joy of a homeless shelter transformed into a wedding chapel a tribute to lives as textured and rich as our own Sonja Livingston author of Ghostbread and selected author of Writers Books 2016 If All of Rochester Read the Same Book Whispers in the Mind Pippa

Newnton, Jo is on Santorini to marry Michael when she realises that he is only after her inheritance She flees to Crete with the help of a secret voice in her mind which leads her to Chania and Dimitri a new friend He hides her in his village high in the mountains Alex a newspaper reporter insists on going with her although she doesn't know why until later Michael follows them into the mountains but is defeated after a series of adventures involving a ruined monastery an explosives cave and Jo's growing love for Alex Irina's Story Jim Williams, 2018 Irina's Story is the history of the Uspensky family and its attempt to negotiate the perils of 20th century Russia It begins in the twilight years of the Tsarist empire in the idyllic setting of the family's country home at Babushkino and describes a world which is destroyed by war revolution and Stalin's terror and ends with the fall of communism and the beginning of a new Russia of gangsters and crony capitalism At the age of 90 Irina Uspenskaya is the last surviving witness of these events In her Moscow apartment while her young relative Slavochka and his friends in the International Syndicate aspire to become successful drug dealers Irina collects the letters and diaries of her parents generation and sets down the tale of what happened to them all In turn she describes the doomed marriage of her father Nikolai and her mother Xenia who love but never understand each other her idealistic aunt Adalia who marries the sinister Grodsky her disreputable uncle Alexander and his feisty wife Tatiana These and a host of other colourful characters populate the story and we see their world through their eyes and understand it through their thoughts and writings Our guide Irina is wry funny insightful and humane Born with a disability she views events through detached yet sympathetic eyes and reflects on her own history and her unrequited love for a boy she met as a little girl and the family and children she will never have Irina's Story is told with verve compassion and a command of the sweep of Russian history It is at times funny romantic tragic and appalling but suffused throughout with deep humanity The Ray Pool: Mila and Julieta's Story

Andy Jarvis, 2019-02-27 Prepare for another journey to a place far away and long ago in this sequel to The Ray Hunters a charming and captivating tale rich with character and an absorbing plot Three years have passed since Mila and Julieta were reunited and travelled to their new life on the island of Kerkira Having survived the horrors of the past their simple lives with Trader and his new wife seems idyllic on their peaceful secluded homestead away from the troubles of the outside world But soon that idyll is under threat Others from the past have learned of their whereabouts And one person in particular has not forgotten The Story Teller of the Desert—"Backsheesh!" or, Life and Adventures in the Orient Thomas Wallace Knox,2021-05-19 In The Story Teller of the Desert Backsheesh or Life and Adventures in the Orient Thomas Wallace Knox intricately weaves a tapestry of narrative rich with vivid descriptions and cultural insights This captivating work combines travel writing with autobiography allowing readers to journey through the mystique of the Orient during the late 19th century The literary style is marked by its engaging storytelling and keen observation delivering a blend of humor and poignancy as Knox recounts his adventures and encounters with diverse cultures making the exotic landscape both accessible and enthralling to Western audiences of his time Thomas Wallace Knox an American journalist and travel writer possessed an insatiable curiosity that drove him to explore the farthest reaches of the globe His experiences as a correspondent during tumultuous periods coupled with his extensive travels provided him with a unique perspective on the lands and peoples he encountered Knox's writings reflect the greater cultural dialogues between the East and West offering insights into the societal norms and practices of the time which would have piqued the interest of readers intrigued by both adventure and cultural anthropology I highly recommend The Story Teller of the Desert to those who seek a deeper understanding of the Orient through an engaging narrative lens Knox's vivid storytelling invites readers to partake in his escapades illuminating the beauty and complexity of a world often romanticized or misunderstood This book is not only informative but also a mesmerizing escape into a fascinating era of exploration

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis,2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid
