De Wereld Van Eergisteren Nederland Tussen De Jaren 1900 1920:

The Art of Staying Neutral Maartje Abbenhuis, 2025-10-01 The Art of Staying Neutral offers a fascinating insight into the problems and challenges associated with neutrality in an age of total war. It explains how the Netherlands upheld and protected its non belligerency during the First World War despite constant interference from its warring neighbours. Staying neutral was an artform that the Dutch managed to master through clever diplomacy, conscientious adherence to international laws, comprehensive mobilisation of its armed forces, regular patrols of its territorial boundaries, careful policing of its citizens, and a decisive measure of good fortune. The Art of Staying Neutral makes important contributions to the study of neutrality and the domestic history of the Netherlands in this seminal world event.

The Reform of the Dutch Code of Criminal Procedure in Comparative Perspective M.S. Groenhuijsen, Tijs Kooijmans, 2012-09-28 During the last decades of the 20th century a consensus has emerged that the Dutch Code of Criminal Procedure (CCP) which had entered into force in 1926 had become dysfunctional in connection with both main objectives of criminal procedure. The research project Strafvordering 2001 aimed at answering the question how a CCP would look which meets contemporary needs and corresponds to state of the art doctrinal views and is coherent in the sense that it offers a systematic criminal procedure approach. The Dutch government responded to the research findings by means of the introduction of several legislative acts. The contributions in this book discuss the question of whether the legislator has succeeded in improving the law of criminal procedure.

Amsterdam Human Capital Sako Musterd, Willem Salet, 2025-10-01 The familiar shape of western cities is changing dramatically. For long times the urban core was taken for granted as the focal point for international contacts and day to day activities in the region. Currently the urban scope is transforming into multi centred forms at metropolitan scale. The transition is not just a matter of spatial form; it is reflecting social, economic and cultural processes. The question is what new identities may develop in such changing historical conditions of space and place. This book is a first attempt to analyse the process of urban transformation in an integral way. The focus is on the region of Amsterdam. All contributions are written by senior researchers of the Amsterdam studycentre for the Metropolitan Environment (AME). AME is the interdisciplinary urban research institute of the Universiteit van Amsterdam. As the urban research institute at the Universiteit van Amsterdam, the Amsterdam studycentre for the Metropolitan Environment (AME) analyses the economic, social and cultural aspects of this spatial transformation usually in international comparative research. All contributions to this book are written by senior researchers of AME in an attempt to analyse in an integral way the present and future dilemmas out of the historical growth paths of this dynamic city.

Guarded Neutrality Susanne Wolf, 2013-06-20 Traditionally isolated from mainstream European affairs in 1914 the Dutch had no major allegiances that bound them to any one side of the conflict. Geographically and economically caught between two of the major belligerents, Great Britain and Germany, the Netherlands was constantly vulnerable to attack from either side. In adopting a position of neutrality at the beginning of the war, the Dutch took a huge gamble The internment of approximately 50 000 foreign troops in the Netherlands some for almost the entire four years of the war provided an important showcase for the Dutch Government to demonstrate its adherence to international law and its impartiality towards the all of the belligerents Boekblad: nieuwsblad voor het boekenvak ,1984 De eenwording
