

The background of the poster is a dark, atmospheric night scene. In the foreground, a man in a dark trench coat is seen from behind, looking out over a city. The city is illuminated by various lights, including a bright, starburst-like light source on the right. In the distance, a large, illuminated building with multiple towers, resembling a cathedral or a government building, is visible. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, greys, and the bright yellow of the title text.

The Bishop of Cottontown John Trotwood Moore,2020-08-14 Reproduction of the original The Bishop of Cottontown by John Trotwood Moore Under the Glacier Halldor Laxness,2007-12-18 Nobel laureate Halld r Laxness s Under the Glacier is a one of a kind masterpiece a wryly provocative novel at once earthy and otherworldly At its outset the Bishop of Iceland dispatches a young emissary to investigate certain charges against the pastor at Sn fells Glacier who among other things appears to have given up burying the dead But once he arrives the emissary finds that this dereliction counts only as a mild eccentricity in a community that regards itself as the center of the world and where Creation itself is a work in progress What is the emissary to make for example of the boarded up church What about the mysterious building that has sprung up alongside it Or the fact that Pastor Primus spends most of his time shoeing horses Or that his wife Ua pronounced ooh a which is what men invariably sputter upon seeing her is rumored never to have bathed eaten or slept Piling improbability on top of improbability Under the Glacier overflows with comedy both wild and deadpan as it conjures a phantasmagoria as beguiling as it is profound The Witchcraft Sourcebook Brian P. Levack,2004 This collection of trial records laws treatises sermons speeches woodcuttings paintings and literary texts illustrates how contemporaries from various periods have perceived alleged witches and their activities Miss Bishop Bess Streeter Aldrich,2022-08-16 In Miss Bishop Bess Streeter Aldrich intricately weaves the life story of a dedicated educator Mary Bishop against the backdrop of a small

Midwestern town in the early 20th century Aldrich employs a rich evocative narrative style that captures the nuances of personal and communal struggles blending realism with nostalgic reflections The novel explores themes of sacrifice the transformative power of education and the indomitable spirit of women in an era marked by social change Set within a literary context that resonates with the regionalism movement Aldrich s work reflects both the intimate texture of everyday life and the broader societal shifts of her time creating a profound commentary on the role of women in American society Bess Streeter Aldrich an accomplished author with roots in Nebraska draws upon her own experiences as an educator and her keen observations of small town life to shape the narrative of Miss Bishop Her personal insights into the challenges and rewards of teaching inform her characters journeys making the protagonist s trials and triumphs genuinely relatable Aldrich s deep sense of place and her understanding of human relationships culminate in a poignant exploration of selflessness and dedication Miss Bishop is a beautifully crafted novel that invites readers to reflect on the impact of teachers and the quiet yet profound ways in which they shape lives and communities With its engaging storytelling and richly drawn characters this book is a must read for those who appreciate historical fiction that seamlessly blends personal narrative with universal truths

Standards-Based and Responsive Evaluation Robert E. Stake, 2003-10-30 We can be grateful that Dr Stake decided to cap his distinguished career by sharing his ideas in writing This is a book that evaluators will want to have in their personal library It tells us a lot about our field highlights contrasting ways of evaluating without pitting one against the other and manages to remind us why many of us chose this line of work in the first place EVALUATION AND PROGRAM PLANNING Authored by a master writer and evaluator Standards Based and Responsive Evaluation explores the many conceptual choices an evaluator needs to make when doing an evaluation devoting attention to stakeholders weighing ethical risks and writing a useful report The book begins with the main strategic choices an evaluator needs to make between approaches quantitatively by explicating criteria needs standards and performances or qualitatively by studying the activity aspirations problems and accomplishments of the participants and critical observers After reading the text students will have a better appreciation of evaluation as a process that needs to be custom fit to the situation Throughout the book Stake presents evaluation as a series of choices for the reader To remain independent or to join with program staff or stakeholders To value personal experience as evidence or to shun it as biased To aid development formatively or to assess the existing program summatively To use issues goals gains efficiency or problem solving as the key conceptual structure To invest small or large in trying out and validating data gathering procedures To support the standards and ethical codes of professional associations Standards Based and Responsive Evaluation will prove an essential text for program evaluation courses in education nursing social work psychology sociology communication and anthropology Experienced researchers and professional evaluators will also find this an invaluable reference for a more experiential interpretive approach to evaluation work and policy setting Key Features Provides readers with the tools they need to make choices while practicing evaluation

Employs quotations poetry and cartoons to help the reader experience the concepts of evaluation Includes boxed examples from a variety of cases giving readers the opportunity to compare an actual evaluation situation with one in which they may be engaged Allows readers to access extensive examples of evaluation reports coding excerpts and more through a complementary Web site appendix The Bishop of Cottontown John Trotwood Moore, 1906 The Churchman , 1883
