

SCIENTIFIC REVOLUTION

Review Period 1

DOCUMENT BASED QUESTION

Directions: The following question is based on the accompanying Documents 1-6. This question is designed to test your ability to apply several historical thinking skills simultaneously—i.e., periodization, historical argumentation, and patterns of continuity and change over time. Your response should be based on your analysis of the documents and your knowledge of the topic.

Write a well-integrated essay that does the following:

- States an appropriate thesis that directly addresses all parts of the question.
- Supports the thesis or an appropriate argument with evidence from all or all but one of the documents AND your knowledge of European history beyond/outside the documents.
- Analyzes a majority of the documents in terms of such features as their intended audience, purpose, point of view, format, argument, limitations, and/or social context as appropriate to the argument.
- Places the arguments in the context of broader, regional, national, or global processes.

1. To what extent did the ideas and discoveries of the scientific revolution represent a source of continuity with or change from the world view established by ancient philosophers and the Catholic Church?
