| Core Language Index: Includes all of the subtests and is an accurate indicator of a child's overall language capability compared to same age peers.                                                                                                                                                                                    |                |                 |
| Receptive Language Index: Summarises a child's receptive language (comprehension) skills. It includes between 2 and 4 subtests.                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                |                 |
| Expressive Language Index: Summarises the child's ability to use word and sentence structures to express ideas. It includes 2 subtests.                                                                                                                                                                                                |                |                 |
| Language Comprehension Index: Summarises the child's understanding of word meaning and the ability to understand and express that meaning clearly (ie both expressive and receptive skills). It includes 3 subtests.                                                                                                                   |                |                 |
| Language Structure Index: Summarises the child's ability to understand and use the grammatical and word structures that express more subtle meaning in spoken English. The performance of ELL children who speak languages which are very different in terms of grammatical structure, word order etc should be interpreted carefully. |                |                 |
